Why Romania?

- Conveniently located near the center of Europe
- A country at the crossroads -- cultural, historic, geographic, and even linguistic crossroads. Participants can discover a unique combination of tangible Medieval past and modernity, Orthodox and Catholic culture, recent Soviet influence and new European realities.
- A country of legend: country of dragons and dark forests at the edge of the inhabited world, country of knights and castles, of Dracula and vampires...

Why Iasi?

- The first Romanian university
- The National Theatre “Vasile Alecsandri” is the First National Theatre in Romania
- The First Botanical Garden in the Romanian Principalities (Iasi, 1856)
- The First Jewish Theatre in Romania and in the World
- The First Romanian Medical School, University-like, The Surgery School
- The Great Synagogue, the First Jewish Praying House, in Romania (Iasi, 1659-1670).
- The First Romanian Woman, Owner of the Title of a University Professor
- The First Romanian Surgeon Woman
- (possible) collocated with – 10 years, annually - ConsILR 2015 (International Conference on Linguistic Resources And Tools For Processing The Romanian Language)
