

In this talk we present a subset of the visualizations of different types of linguistic data that have resulted from earlier interdisciplinary projects at Konstanz. The idea is to present possibilities and opportunities for further LingVis work within the context of FOR 2111 and to begin in earnest the dialog between P8 and the other projects in the research unit.