

Romance Interrogatives

Workshop for doctoral students on question forms in Romance languages

Thursday, May 18th	Room: F424
14:30-15:00	Informal welcome
15:15-15:25	Official opening
15:25-16:45	Ur Shlonsky (Université de Genève) : Some empirical and conceptual issues in the study of French wh-in-situ.
16:45-17:00	Coffee break
17:00-17:30	Student talk 1: Lucas Tual (Université de Genève): The status of embedded wh-in-situ in French: an experimental investigation.
17:30-18:00	Student talk 2: Katharina Kaiser (Universität Konstanz): On the syntax of wh-in-situ questions in French: a corpus based analysis
18:00-18:30	Student talk 3: Clément Thibert (ENS Lyon): Large-scale investigation of French interrogative structures variation on Twitter: a pilot study
19:30	Dinner

Friday, May 19th	Room: F425
9:00-10:00	Georg Kaiser (Universität Konstanz) & Ricardo Etxepare (CNRS, IKER, Bayonne): Reported questions and insubordination in Spanish.
10:00-10:30	Student talk 4: Simon Dold (Universität Konstanz) : Variation in subject-verb-inversion in Spanish wh-interrogatives
10:30-10:45	Coffee break
10:45-11:15	Student talk 5: Giulia Donzelli (Universität Zürich): Standard and special questions in Comunuovese
11:15-11:45	Student talk 6: Caterina Bonan (Université de Genève): On in-situ-'why' in Trevigiano
11:45-13:30	Lunch break
13:30-14:00	Student talk 7: Aliza Glasbergen-Plas (Universiteit Leiden): French wh-in situ, intervention effects and prosody: a comparison between echo questions and contrastive information questions
14:00-15:00	Jenny Doetjes (Universiteit Leiden): Focus on questions? Some issues concerning the relation between information structure and questions.
15:00-15:30	Student talk 8: Janina Reinhardt (Universität Konstanz): The morphosyntax and intonation of question forms in French reality TV
15:30-15:45	Coffee break
15:45-16:45	María Biezma (Universität Konstanz): The notion of "givenness" in wh-in-situ questions in Romance languages
16:45-17:00	Closure